
Same 1,000 paired standard-normal samples; lowest-energy interior minimum when several exist.
Fits are descriptive approximations. Samples without a minimum are accounted for separately.